

Part I. Name of Country: Anguilla

Part II. U.S. Embassy Information

U.S. Embassy Barbados, the Eastern Caribbean, and the OCES

Wilkey Business Park

Wilkey

St. Michael, BB 14006

Barbados, W.I.

Phone: (246) 227-4000

Fax: 1-246-431-0179

State Department Country Specific Information

State Department Travel Information

Register with the U.S. Embassy

Part III. Profile of Religions of the Host Country and Religious Services Available to Visitors:

Religions: Anglican, Methodist, Roman Catholic, Seventh-Day Adventist, Jehovah's Witness, Pentacostal, among others

Part IV. Funeral Directors, Mortician and Related Services Available in the Host Country: DISCLAIMER: The U.S. Embassy Bridgetown, Barbados assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the following persons or firms. Names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance. Professional credentials and areas of expertise are provided directly by the funeral directors, morticians and other service providers.

TWO SONS FUNERAL HOME
P.O. BOX 1132 THE VALLEY ANGUILLA
PHONE: (264) 497 3249
FAX: (264) 497 2903
CELL: (264) 584 3249 /0123

The estimated total cost for the transportation of remains back to that United States starts around USD $5,900.

There is US standard embalming available and morgue fees are free. A pathologist from St. Lucia must travel to the island as there are none on Anguilla.

- a) If the remains are not cremated, the body is placed in a specially made sealed casket which is mandatory for international transportation guidelines. Remains are flown out from St. Martin. There is a USD $250.00 transit permit, death certificate and embalming certificate required to move the remains from Anguilla to any destination.

- b) Specific facts relating to embalming, cremation, caskets, exportation, documentation requirements, preparation, shipment, and exhumation — U.S. standard embalming is available. Embalming costs start around USD $900.00.

There are no cremation facilities on Anguilla, remains must be shipped to St. Croix or St. Martin for cremation. Cremation costs start around USD $4,800 (for shipping and cremation).

- c) As applicable, unique circumstances which may apply to post there are no pathologists on Anguilla.

- d) Shipping of Remains — Remains are shipped via St. Martin to final destination. Estimated air freight costs start at USD $2,500.00. Cremated remains cannot be shipped through the post office> all remains must be ship from funeral home to funeral home.
- e) Local authorities responsible for licensing funeral directors and morticians — Government of Anguilla, Inland Revenue Department.
- f) Local authorities responsible for making findings regarding the cause of death and for issuing local death certificates —

Coroner duties are carried out by magistrate judges. The Registry Department issues local death certificates.

- (1) Maximum period before burial of remains- undefined
- (2) Embalming Available, starting at USD $900.00
- (3) Cremation Not available on Anguilla, remains must be transported to St. Croix or St. Martin, starting at USD $4,800.00
- (4) Caskets and Containers' A variety of caskets are available, starting in the USD $1,100.00 to $4,000.00 range.
- (5) Exportation of human remains- Human remains must be transferred to St. Martin for connecting flights to the United States. A USD $100.00 transit permit accompanied by a death certificate and embalming certificate is required to move the remains from Anguilla to St. Martin.
- (6) Exportation of human cremains/ashes' Available via airlines, depending on the carrier and must be shipped from funeral home to funeral home.
- (7) Costs — Charges are based on the exchange rate of- $1.00USD = $2.7169 EC

Exhumation and Shipment- Information not available